

Front Porches

Brunswick Housing Opportunities, Inc.

Connecting People and Preparation with Resources and Opportunities

Front Porches Financial Fitness education and housing counseling service provided to those seeking to become homeowners or refinance their existing homes. Every Customer begins with training in money management and financial coaching. These services act as the catalyst to help the customer choose the direction they want to pursue as it relates to purchasing, building or maintaining great housing. BHO stays with the customer up to a year after they achieve their housing goals.

Our Certified Housing Counselors are dedicated professionals that equip clients with the necessary tools to achieve success through education, training and preparation. We offer homeownership coaching, counseling, and credit improvement coaching, along with other resources that promote economic independence. We strive to Educate, to Equip, to Empower and to Expand opportunities for the families and individuals in the communities we serve.

- Educate Customers to use existing resources as a platform to launch their economic independence.
- Equip Customers by giving them access with training to tools and resources previously out of their reach.
- Empower Customers to use their training and preparation to take advantage of opportunities.
- Expand dreams beyond possibilities into realities.

You should use this service if you:

- Want to purchase a home in Brunswick, Columbus or Pender County.
- Want to improve your credit or need a Financial Fitness review.
- Want to obtain Homebuyer Education Certificate.
- Interested in saving money and getting the tools to make good decisions.
